

Parenting Together

Are you a parent of a young child or have recently had a baby?

Are you co-parenting a child with another person (partner, extended family, kinship carers etc)?

Do you and your partner have very different ideas on the 'right' way to raise a child?

Do you feel you could communicate better with your partner?

Relationships Australia South Australia will be running the Parenting Together program. This five week Communities for Children initiative is most effective for co-parents with a child 0-5 years, who are having trouble communicating effectively with each other and who can both attend the group.
